

CLOSING

An investment in Vision Brookings 2010 is an investment in South Dakota's future. What price can we put on the future for our children and grandchildren? We must not be satisfied with the jobs of today but must be prepared to face the new world of tomorrow that values education, innovation, and technology while encouraging and embracing entrepreneurship. We look forward to your support at a level commensurate with your ability.

Pledges may be made over five years with pledge payments determined by the investor quarterly, semi-annually or annually. All investors, regardless of the size of their pledge, will receive public recognition and be listed as a member of the Investors Council. All investors will be notified about periodic progress meetings and briefings to be held through 2010. Your five-year pledge of support will help provide the kind of financial stability needed to plan the future of the Brookings area.
