

PRESENTS: CELEBRATING ABILITIES

Wednesday, October 5, 2011
from noon to 1:00pm @
Swiftel Center

Geri Jewell

Introduced to millions as ‘Cousin Geri’ on the NBC sitcom “The Facts of Life”, Geri has risen to become a leading force in disabilities advocacy. Geri uses humor and actual life experiences to demonstrate how we can open our eyes and hearts to a better understanding of those with a disability. Geri also introduces techniques on how to open doors in the workplace.

Registration:

$15 for Chamber Members
$20 for Non-Chamber Members

Punch Cards: Available for Season

$120 for Chamber Members
$160 for Non-Chamber Members

To RSVP or for more info, contact the Chamber at info@brookingschamber.org or 692-6125 by Sept. 30, 2011. Prepayment can be sent to: 414 Main Ave., Brookings, SD.

Note: registered attendees will be charged in full in the absence of a 48-hr cancellation notice.

In Celebration of the 2011 National Disability
Employment Awareness
Month Sponsored by:

